

As a central shared service center, Re:Sources Germany supports its sister agencies in all administrative functions. True to our mission statement "excellence through partnership", the agencies in Germany, Austria and Switzerland are supported with our service. Re:Sources acts as the "back bone" of the Groupe as a service provider for the agencies and as the guardian of the Groupe's internal guidelines as well as the country-specific laws within the D-A-CH region. Re:Sources stands up for the values and principles of Publicis Groupe and generates a global competitive advantage by working in partnership with its sister agencies. Our guiding principle is that everything we do is accompanied by a reliable and efficient service.

Re:Sources Germany is seeking a talented and flexible Project Manager being part of Publicis Groupe's Global Data Privacy Office (GDPO). It is a full-time and unlimited position based in Munich. The role is broad and involves the overall management of various privacy related projects. It also includes advising our business on the various privacy related risks and obligations in close coordination with our privacy lawyers. We are looking for someone diligent, proactive, practical and a team player who has expertise as a project manager for innovative technical platforms and complex global and local programs and knows how to keep an eye on the big picture. A candidate with a legal background and privacy expertise is highly welcome.

Project Manager - Global Data Privacy Office (m/f/d)

Your Responsibilities:

- Support the Global Data Privacy Office on a national and international level regarding data protection compliance
- Organization, implementation, and follow-up of various internal as well as customer-related projects
- Support in drafting and reviewing agency website privacy notices, cookies policy, and other privacy notices and disclosures
- Support assessments of data privacy implications for new products, systems, and features
- Management and preparation of meeting reports of data protection projects
- Coordinate with internal teams across Publicis Groupe on multi-agency initiatives:
- Collaboration with the Global Data Privacy Operations Team as well as the Global Security Office (GSO)
- Provide relevant stakeholders within Publicis Groupe with appropriate advice and guidance, with the ability to effectively collaborate and communicate with diverse cross-functional team

Your Profile

- Successfully completed University studies in the field of business administration or law (or a comparable degree)
- At least 2+ years of relevant professional experience in the management of complex projects, especially in the digital fieldExpertise in multi-project management
- Strong methodological skills regarding project and risk management tools

- Legal/ privacy judgment and strategic thinking
- Data protection certification (CIPP/E, CIPP/M or similar) is of advantage
- Excellent communication skills in written and spoken English. German and/or French is of advantage
- Ability to work in fast-paced environment, provide advice under tight deadlines and competent in managing a varied workload

What we offer:

- Flexible working hours
- Flat hierarchies
- Team-oriented corporate culture
- Central and modern working environment
- Work in an international, interdisciplinary environment

Seize the opportunity to gain experience in an international group and master the challenge of reconciling personal service and complex corporate guidelines. Be a partner, service provider and colleague for our customers!

We look forward to receiving your complete application documents, including your salary expectations, by e-mail to: job@lionresources.com.

By submitting your application, you automatically agree to our privacy policy, which can be viewed via the link in our job offers.

Re:Sources Germany GmbH

Stephanie Engelke
Toulouser Allee 1
40211 Düsseldorf

